Reflection

Our Gospel reminds us of just that. Jesus said, “God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.” In knowing all of our sins and imperfections, Jesus still came for us. He never once thought, ‘he has too many problems’ or ‘she hasn’t lived faithfully to my commands, she is a lost cause.’ He knew all these things and now patiently waits for us to run into His merciful arms.

Stewardship

During these last weeks of Lent, let us examine our hearts for the times we have turned away from God, whether it be just a moment or years of distance from our Lord. Then let us bring all of those impurities to God, with a sorrowful heart and a resolution to change, in the sacrament of Confession. May we reflect on just how much God loves us despite our shortcomings and may we strive to love Him in return each day.

Year of the Domestic Church: Prayer: O God, creator of all, you ordered the earth to bring forth life and crowned its goodness by creating the human family. In history's moment when all was ready, you sent your Son to dwell in time, "practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity." Teach us the sanctity of human love; show us the value of the Domestic Church; and help us to live in peace with all people, that we may share in your life forever. With the intercession of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, we ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.
