Reflection

In our Second Reading, St. James is reminding us to not become enslaved to our passions. In a moment, it might feel good to jab back at someone in an argument or selfishly do what you can to gain the upper hand in life or even overindulge in earthly pleasures. But when we step back outside of that moment, we realize we have not gained anything and lost the ability to do something great. These are moments where we must decide between good and evil.

Stewardship

Today, let us recall that we have an infinitely loving God who cares deeply for us. Consider all that He has blessed you with, and how you can use those blessings for His glory.

Thank You! We would like to express our sincere thankfulness and appreciation to all those of St. Joseph Catholic Church, who served our family in our time of mourning and in celebrating the life of our uncle and friend T.J. Krenek. To Father Joy for meeting with us, preparing the eulogy and celebrating mass along with Kathy Cowen, Monica Spacek and all those who made the service meaningful and comforting. To the Altar Society Ladies for your love and care for us in preparing and serving a wonderful meal, and giving us a special time together to visit with family and friends in our time of need. Thank you all for being the practical expression of our Lord Jesus! Your love is deeply felt and appreciated. Sincerely, Michael, Glenn and David Kovar.

Year of the Domestic Church: Prayer: O God, creator of all, you ordered the earth to bring forth life and crowned its goodness by creating the human family. In history's moment when all was ready, you sent your Son to dwell in time, "practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity." Teach us the sanctity of human love; show us the value of the Domestic Church; and help us to live in peace with all people, that we may share in your life forever. With the intercession of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, we ask this through Christ the Lord. Amen.
