Reflection

The story found in today’s Gospel reading of the wedding feast at Cana is certainly a familiar one. At the request of his mother, Jesus is asked to perform his first public miracle. The wedding banquet host, for his part, is facing public humiliation for falling short of his guests’ expectations because he has run out of wine. For Jesus’s part, the stakes which he faces before the assembled wedding guests are even greater. By performing his first public miracle, Jesus’s “hour” is about to begin.

Stewardship

The generous and abundant gift of wine, perhaps as much as one-hundred and eighty gallons of the very best fruit of the vine, would indeed signal the beginning of Jesus’s public ministry. Having “so revealed his glory,” the miracle at Cana would send him along the path to Calvary, where an even greater gift of redemption would soon be given.
